

Hospital's physical therapy department cuts ribbon on renovated area

Members of the Sioux Center chamber of commerce gathered on October 14 for an open house celebrating physical therapy's move to a newly remodeled area within the hospital. Jerry Zomermaand of the physical therapy department cut the ribbon.